The Kansas State Historical Society solicits diaries, letters, and other original records, books and pamphlets written by Kansans or about Kansas, territorial and state newspapers up to 1876, photographs, and maps and atlases of the state. The Society will also be glad to consider objects suitable for the museum, especially those having a direct connection with Kansas history.

Gifts and bequests for the furtherance of the Society's work will be gratefully received. Such remembrances, in various forms, are appropriate permanent memorials to the interests of an individual or a group. A representative of the Society will be glad to consult with anyone wishing to make a gift or to establish a bequest or endowment. Address the Executive Director, KANSAS STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY, 120 W. Tenth St., Topeka, Kan. 66612.

THE COVER

A painting of the Beecher Bible and Rifle church, Wabaunsee, by Dan Jacobson of Kansas City, Mo. Jacobson, a native of the Waterville area, was an advertising artist for 46 years but in recent years has been painting Kansas and Western scenes in his own studio. The church was organized in 1857 and the building completed in 1862. Henry Ward Beecher and other Eastern abolitionists sent rifles to the Wabaunsee colony to aid in the struggle to make Kansas a free state.
