The Kansas State Historical Society solicits diaries, letters, and other original records, books and pamphlets written by Kansans or about Kansas, territorial and state newspapers up to 1876, photographs, and maps and atlases of the state. The Society will also be glad to consider objects suitable for the museum, especially those having a direct connection with Kansas history.

Gifts and bequests for the furtherance of the Society's work will be gratefully received. Such remembrances, in various forms, are appropriate permanent memorials to the interests of an individual or a group. A representative of the Society will be glad to consult with anyone wishing to make a gift or to establish a bequest or endowment. Address the Executive Director, KANSAS STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY, 120 W. Tenth St., Topeka, Kan. 66612.

THE COVER

In 1886 William Harvey Brown, University of Kansas student, took part in a Smithsonian Institution buffalo hunt in Montana. The purpose of the expedition was to obtain buffalo skins, skeletons, and skulls for display and study. For Brown's services and a financial contribution by the University of Kansas to the expedition, the skin of the buffalo bull in this photograph was given to the university. The skin of the cow in the photograph was presented to Brown but also ended up at the university. The skins were mounted by L. L. Dyche, possibly with Brown's assistance. Today these are a part of the popular exhibit of North American animals in the Dyche Museum of Natural History at the University of Kansas. Photograph courtesy the Dyche Museum. For the story of the acquisition of the skins, see John M. Peterson's article, "W. Harvey Brown and K. U.'s First Buffaloes," page 219.
