ERRATA, VOLUME 32

Winter 2009–2010, p. 265, William H. Thompson actually defeated former Governor Walter R. Stubbs in the general election contest for the U.S. Senate in 1912; previously, Stubbs bested incumbent Senator Charles Curtis in the primary to capture the Republican nomination for that office.

ERRATA, VOLUME 33

Spring 2010, pp. 11 (caption), 14, 15, 16; notes 2, 35, 39, 50, 56, pp. 4, 13, 14, 16, 18; regrettably, we misspelled Anne Hoopingarner Ridder's last name throughout the article; her married name is Ridder, not "Ritter."

Summer 2010, p. 97, n. 9, the antimiscegenation statute, enacted by the so-called "Bogus Legislature" in 1855, was "repealed" in 1858 by the first free-state territorial legislature, not by the first Kansas State Legislature.
