The Kansas Historical Quarterly is published in February, May, August and November by the Kansas State Historical Society, Topeka, Kan., and is distributed free to members. Correspondence concerning contributions may be sent to the editor. The Society assumes no responsibility for statements made by contributors.

Entered as second-class matter October 22, 1931, at the post office at Topeka, Kan., under the act of August 24, 1912.

THE COVER

A dog dance by the Kansas Indians at one of their former villages two miles east of present Manhattan, August 24, 1819. The picture is a reproduction of the sketch drawn by Samuel Seymour of the Maj. S. H. Long expedition. It was published in 1822 and is believed to be the first ever printed relating to what is now the state of Kansas.
