

Kansas History as Published in the Press

Historical articles published in the Hays Daily News in recent months included: "Boys in Blue' at Fort Hays Had a Jolly 4th of July Eighty-five Years Ago Today," July 4, 1963; "Dr. J. H. Middlekauff, Country Doctor," by Dr. Mac Brewer, July 4, 14, and 21; "Buffalo Bill' Earned His Nickname Hunting Buffaloes Near Fort Hays," July 25; "Train Whistles Help Bind a Sprawling Nation Together," by Kittie Dale, July 28; "She'll [Mrs. F. A. Furbeck] Take Comforts of Today Over Hardships of 'Olden Days'," by Kittie Dale, August 25; "Bringing of Culture to Hays Was a Community Effort," the reminiscences of Louis J. Mertes, September 15; and "The Old Opera House at Ellis," by Kittie Dale, September 22.

In the July 11, 1963, issue of the Anthony Republican, were histories of the Burchfiel Methodist church, Anthony Christian church, Anthony Church of the Nazarene, and the Anthony Public Library.

Gordon S. Hohn's historical articles continue to appear regularly in the Marysville Advocate. Among those published in the past several months were: "Long, Burning Summer of 1901 Saw 109 Degree Temperatures in July," July 11, 1963; "Plan for Marking Historical Spots in Marshall County Started in 1938," July 18; "Great Homecoming Celebration 1919 for Returning Soldiers of World War I," July 25; "Railroad Installations Were Rushed to Completion Here in 1917 Boom," August 15; "1915 Rains Brought Peril to Wheat Crop, Cut Chautauqua Attendance," August 22; "Pages of History Turned When City Bade Farewell to Old Central School," August 29; "City Was Paved After World War I, During Mayor Charles Pusch Regime," September 5; "Old Western Trails Through County Soon Vanished as Settlers Arrived," September 12; "1908 Fire Department [Racing] Team Ranked as One of Best, State Champions," September 19; "County Printing Was Issue During Bitterly Fought Campaign in 1908," October 17; "1870 Marysville Newspaper Predicted Rosy Railroad Future for This City," October 24; "Bond Issue in Autumn of 1915 Was Death Knell for Old Stone Normal," October 31; "Educational System Here Goes Back to 1861, Citizens Take Pride in Schools," November 7; and "Pioneer Cigar Maker Once Had to Refuse an Order by Saloon Keeper," November 14.