THE COVER

Former Pres. and Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower in front of the Eisenhower museum in his home town of Abilene, May 1, 1962, on the occasion of the dedication of the Eisenhower library. In the background, almost as if it were a part of the museum building, is a grain storage elevator. Photo courtesy of the Eisenhower library.

For Henry Jameson's story of the development of the Eisenhower boom for the Presidency, see pp. 132-146.
