

Flint and steel Object Card

Wooden matches were available to Civil War soldiers, but they cost money and did not work when wet. A flint and steel would create a spark to ignite tinder (such as charred cloth) in any weather.

