

Sewing kit Object Card

Many women's relief organizations made small sewing kits for soldiers to carry needles, thread, and extra buttons. Nicknamed housewives or comforts, these kits contained all the items needed to mend uniforms. Union soldiers were disciplined if their uniforms was torn or messy.

